Be sure to include at least 10 images, some transitions, and some filters to make your Powerpoint project more interesting

For the Powerpoint Presentations you must:

...introduce your famous person: name, birthday (death date if appropriate), birthplace

...answer all 4 questions about him/her-

...have a Timeline with 10 important events in your person's life (ex. Date of birth, first important thing they did, and events that led to fame. You will have 10 visual aides/images in your project that will demonstrate different parts of your person's life (i.e. art work, where they live(d), a picture of the person, clothing they wore, equipment used by the person, a map of the country they come from, song lyrics, etcetera...) These are just ideas for your visual. BE CREATIVE with your powerpoint.

* You will need to select two questions from the supplementary question list(provided below) to answer. You MUST write these two questions, as titles in your Powerpoint, as individual slides for each Question

1. How did he/she achieve fame?

2. What did he/she contribute to society?

Supplementary Question 1: _____

Supplementary Question 2: _____

Biography Questions

Mandatory Questions: these are the two questions that everyone MUST use in their presentation.

Supplementary Questions: everyone must choose 2 more research questions from the list below:

1. In what ways was the life remarkable/admirable? (someone worthy of your attention and why/someone you'd like to be like when you grow up and why)
2. Which quality or trait was most beneficial and how did it help this person in life?
3. Did this person make any major mistakes or bad decisions? If so, what were they and how would you have chosen and acted differently if you were in their shoes?
4. What are the two or three most important lessons you or any other young person might learn from the way this person lived?
5. An older person or mentor is often very important in shaping the lives of gifted people by providing guidance and encouragement. To what extent was this true of your person? Explain.
6. Many people act out of societal pressures or a set of beliefs which dictate choices. It may be social, religious, political or a personal philosophy. To what extent did your person act within their group or act independently of any set of beliefs?
7. Was/Is your person a "hero?" Why? Why not? Give at least ONE specific reason why or why not for you person. What do you think it means to be a hero?
